PARENT & PLAYER CODES OF CONDUCT

What is it?

- The USA Hockey and SCIR Codes of Conduct were developed to help everyone understand the expectations associated with their role in the game
- These expectations extend to all SCIR activities including games, practices, team activities, and tournaments as well as guests
- USA Hockey has zero tolerance for inappropriate or disruptive behavior

What is the purpose?

- Players & Coaches sign and adhere to the USA Hockey Participant Code of Conduct and parents sign and adhere to the SCIR Parent Code of Conduct
- You signed these forms electronically when you completed the online invoice process
- In the unfortunate event of a SCIR, PAHL, or USA Hockey discipline hearing or investigation, these documents will be used as evidentiary exhibits

More Information?

- The USA Hockey Participant Code of Conduct and the SCIR Parent Code of Conduct can be found online at:
<https://www.scirhockey.org/information/managers-info-page>
- The full list of USA Hockey Code of Contact including Spectators can be found at:
<https://www.usahockeyrulebook.com/page/show/1015129-codes-of-conduct>

Violations of the Code of Conduct can result in discipline by officials or supplemental discipline outside of the confines of an activity.
